

In His Presence

*In His presence there is joy that radiates like sunshine in your life.
As He comforts you from care and delivers you from strife.*

*In His presence songs of praise flows out of your mouth
For your soul is satisfied there is no doubt.*

*In His presence your body sways with the rhythm of His heart
For you trust completely in His Word of which you will not depart.*

*In His presence tears overflow for at times you do displease
He holds you in His arms, wipes your tears away with the promises on His sleeve.*

*In His presence as you examine the works of His hands
You feel small in his universe and this mighty bountiful land*

*In His presence His longsuffering supremely reigns
For you seek to glorify His holy name*

*In His presence His patience is often overdue
As He sands, chisels and carves His character in you*

*In His presence there is peace that comes from knowing
That from this life just where you are going*

*You lay your yesterdays, your today and your tomorrows
With all its happiness and sorrows*

Down at His feet

When you are

IN HIS PRESENCE

By Teresa Rodgers

2006 copyright